and

Dear Doctor,

“Cutting Edge 2008” brings to the present day trends in Management & Guidance for the optimum care of High Risk Pregnancies & Infertile patients.

We thank those of you who attended the “Cutting Edge 2007” - Weaving Research into Practice in Bangalore last year; this has inspired us to host the “Cutting Edge 2008” at Coimbatore with fresh inputs to update the practice pathways - especially in the Indian context.

Ganga Hospital known for its academic excellence is now welcoming you all for a fascinating mix of research woven into experience of day to day clinical practice.

We welcome you to celebrate science.
